The Bryan, Stevenson and Rixey Club will meet at their headquarters at Sarepta Hall and speeches will be made by several gentlemen from this city, including Mr. S. G. Brent.

OPERA HOUSE.—There is plenty of fun in "Down on the Farm," to be presented Monday night. The character of Seth Huckle, an honest old farmer, is well conceived, strongly drawn, and is impersonated by that amusing Yankee comedian, Mr. Charles Mauley, who is supported by a company of clever people. The plot is a good one and holds the audience from start to finish.

NATURALIZATION.—J. C. Winter, a native of Holland, and W. A. Arnold, a native of Germany, were today in the Corporation Court granted naturalization papers, and Oswald Tutz, a native of Germany, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

CHARGES PREPARED.—Lieut. Smith today filed charges with the Mayor against Officer Lyles, whom he reports as having been found asleep on his beat on the night of Thursday last. The Mayor will investigate the charge on Monday.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There is a scarcity of oysters at the wharves. Six lodgers were at the station house last night.

Thomas Carey, colored, was fined $2.50 this morning by the Mayor for trespassing upon electric cars.

The registration books were open today for the last time before the election, and quite a number of names were added to the lists.

There was a break in the sewer at the intersection of Washington and Wilkes streets this morning, but the damage was soon repaired.

A large box which had been stolen from Mr. Frank Polak's feed store on Thursday was recovered yesterday and restored to its owner by Officer Roberts.

The steamer Estelle Randall, after a thorough overhauling and being fitted with a new propeller, will resume her trips on the Potomac river on Monday.

The market today was well supplied with everything in season, and considerable activity was shown, though prices were about the same as those of last week.

Charles W. Leonard, proprietor of the American House, corner of Seventh street and Potomac avenue, Washington, yesterday made an assignment with liabilities of $35,000.

The Berkeley Brotherhood of Trinity M. E. Church will be addressed by Rev. E. A. Ward, Ph.D., pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All men and boys of the city are invited to be present.

Mr. Clarence M. Janney has opened an insurance office at No. 111 south Royal street and has been appointed agent of the Equitable Life Assurance Company. Mr. Janney is an energetic and popular young business man, and his many friends wish him success.

W. H. Stale, who conducted a photographic studio at No. 1107 F street, Washington, was found dead in his studio this morning. Death resulted from suffocation by gas. It is believed that when he retired he failed to properly turn off the gas.

EXCITEMENT IN GILES.—The vicinity of Newport and Interior, in Giles county, is excited over an alleged attempt made by Minor Smith, to assault originally Miss Maude Williams, a highly-respected young lady, and a daughter of James B. Williams. The story is as follows: Smith and the young lady were in attendance at a dance at Interior, the terminus of the short line of railroad running out from Narrows. Miss Williams was induced by Smith to take a walk with him, and the matter being called to the attention of five young men, who knew something of Smith's reputation, they volunteered to follow him. When they came in sight of the two they saw a desperate struggle between them, the young woman fighting like an enraged tigress, until she sank to the ground, completely exhausted, and her cries were stifled. Just at this time one of the men fired a gun, and Smith fled. This happened two or three days ago, and on Wednesday Smith was arrested and jailed at Parrisburg. Miss Williams is from one of the best families in Giles county, and her character is said to be above reproach.

CAUSED ARREST OF WIFE AND ANOTHER.—Robert Hoy, hotel proprietor, had his wife, Mary E. Hoy, and Henry E. Dalton, a young man who gives his occupation as a clerk, arrested about midnight, and they were taken to No. 2 police station in Washington. Hoy said his wife for divorce but she filed a cross bill, and the matter has not been settled. Several days ago he heard that his wife was living at 8 F street northwest. Shortly before 12 o'clock last night, with Acting Sergeant Smith and Officer Hebrew and two or three witnesses, he went to the house where, it is alleged, Dalton and Mrs. Hoy have been living together for several months. Mrs. Hoy is forty-six years old, and gives her occupation as a music teacher. She spent the night at the House of Detention. Dalton is looked up at the Second Precinct station.
